Announcer: Let's Connect. Hear from the community at the 2022 LSAC Law School Forums.

Anthony: My name is Anthony Lancia. I'm a recent undergrad from Providence College, and the reason I came here today is up until about a couple months ago, I graduated, I didn't really know where I wanted to go career-wise, whether I wanted to go right into work first, I want to go back to school. Law school's always been in interest for me. I really enjoyed today being able to hear the LSAC prep but also meeting with the schools. The combination of that was very helpful for me. Kind of reassured me that I am on the right path and I do want to do this.
